Professional Summary

Marketing graduate with hands-on experience in customer-facing support roles, UX/UI design, and digital platform troubleshooting. At Tiendanube, I served as the first line of support for merchants, investigating technical issues, reproducing platform bugs, and escalating verified cases to product and engineering teams — turning raw customer signal into actionable tickets. I bring a blended skill set of empathetic customer communication, analytical curiosity, and UX/UI sensibility (Figma, wireframing, prototyping, CRO) that helps me understand both the user frustration and the underlying interface flaw. Comfortable working in fast-paced, ticket-driven environments with structured workflows and high-volume queues. Passionate about solving problems methodically and ensuring no customer issue gets lost in the noise.
